

Eric Boehm

CAREER:

United Way of Northwest Vermont - Burlington, VT September 2017 - Present
Director of Finance

- Provide strategic financial leadership and run the day- to -day Accounting and Finance functions of the organization

Seventh Generation – Burlington, VT April 2015 – September 2017
Senior Budget and Planning Analyst

- Led the company's budget, forecasting, scenario planning, and long-range planning processes

The Aspen Institute – Washington, D.C. November 2008 – April 2015
Senior Manager, Programs and Financial Analysis

- Oversaw the finances of 4 policy programs and advised policy programs on implementing process improvements in federal and private foundation grants management, budget development, and project evaluation

SmithBucklin Corp. – Washington, D.C. January 2007 – October 2008
Client Accountant – Financial Management and Accounting Services Department (FMAS)

- Conducted financial services concurrently for up to 10 501(c)3 and (c)6 client organizations

Investment Company Institute – Washington, D.C. August 2005 – December 2006
Statistical Research Assistant

- Analyzed industry-wide statistics from member financial surveys

Office of U.S. Senator Patrick Leahy - Washington, D.C. Summer 2005
Intern

VOLUNTEER:

City Market, Onion River Co-op
Board of Directors Term: 2017-2019

EDUCATION:

Georgetown University – Nonprofit Management Executive Certificate July 2008
Consisted of 64 course hours on organizational best practices and board governance

University of Colorado at Boulder - Leeds School of Business Administration Grad. 2005
Major: Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting (B.S.)
Study abroad: University of Cape Town, South Africa 2003