Prepared Foods:

Our Prepared Foods department uses local ingredients whenever possible and when in season. Local ingredients are highlighted on our hot and cold bar signs and deli signs with bolded font and include Maple Meadow eggs, Miskell's Premium Organics chard and kale, Rockville Market Farm squash, Lewis Creek Farm root vegetables, and Clay Brook Farm tomatoes.

Bakery

We have one of the largest selections of local, artisan bakery offerings in the state of Vermont!

Produce:

Please visit our Produce department for a changing supply of local, seasonal produce! (You can easily spot Vermont produce by the purple and cream signs with the state of Vermont symbol along with the name and location of the farm.)

What is “Local” at City Market?

“Local” products at City Market are grown, or raised in Vermont, where the farm selling the product is from Vermont, and any processing is done in Vermont. These local products are mostly whole, unprocessed foods.

What is “Made in Vermont” at City Market?

“Made In Vermont” products are significantly transformed in Vermont, but are not made from Vermont-grown ingredients. This brochure only lists “Local” products.
